

It's maple syrup time!

Frosty nights and warm days get the sap running!

1. Small holes are drilled into the maple trees.

— — — — —

P M A L E

2. Spiles are tapped into the small holes and buckets are hung from each spile.

— — — — —

H C A K S

3. Sap is gathered and taken to the Sugar Shack.

— — — — —

P S A

4. The sap is boiled to remove water, leaving a thick syrup behind.

— — — — —

S G R U A

5. The hot syrup is filtered until it is clear enough to see through.

— — — — —

S I E P L S

6. Nutritious and delicious, ready-to-eat, Maple Syrup is now ready to package into bottles or cans.

— — — — —

O L B I D E

Unscramble the words. HINT: You'll find all the words in the drops of sap!

www.OntarioFarmFresh.com

Answers: MAPLE SAP SHACK SUGAR SPILES BOILED